

ŚRĪ VYĀSA-PŪJĀ

To our beloved Gurudev HG Mahatma Das
Polen 2017

Prem Kishor Das

Dear Gurudeva,

Please accept my humble obeisances. All glories to Srila Prabhupada.

"Now I am confused about my duty and have lost all composure because of miserly weakness. In this condition I am asking You to tell me for certain what is best for me. Now I am Your disciple, and a soul surrendered unto You. Please instruct me."-B.G. 2.7

I have been reflecting on this verse the past couple of months, thinking about when I met you in person for the first time and where I am at now in my life.

In a time when I felt like no matter which direction I went I would only meet with suffering, you helped me. Not only did you help me but you recharged my sense of purpose and helped me regain the belief that living a healthy spiritual life and saving the world was actually possible. So the past few years I have tried to the best of my ability to serve your mission.

However, in doing so I neglected my personal financial life and needed some time to focus on that to at least be in a place where I can serve, not out of anxiety, but out of intelligence.

I know I have distanced myself from the current strategies for making Sattva successful. But I haven't distance myself from your vision. This whole year I've been working on a project that I believe will help not only financially but help promote our courses in huge way all across Latin America. This is where all of my energy is currently going.

Please forgive me for my lack of communication and distancing myself from helping. All I want is to see your vision realized and I promise to continue working towards seeing that happen.

Your eternal servant,
Prem Kishor Das

Rasika Devi Dasi

Dear Gurudeva,

My humble obeisances and love to you.

In this very special day I want to thank you so much for all your help in guiding me in my spiritual life and bringing me closer to Prabhupada and Krishna. You are such a wonderful kind soul full of so many amazing qualities. Thank you for all your mercy and care and for encouraging me in serving Prabhupada's mission. Thank you for your classes and music. Every time I listen to you I remember what is truly important in life.

Please give me your blessings so I can continue serving him in his mission to give Krishna consciousness to all. I want to do everything I can and give my best to serve you and him in serving Krishna and others.

And Please forgive me for my offenses and for not giving you the service you deserve.

Dear Guru Maharaj,

Please accept my humble obeisances

All Glories to Srila Prabupada!

All Glories to you Gurudeva on this auspicious day!

I look to you as my highest example and inspiration in my spiritual life. Seeing the impact you have on devotees when you teach has truly touched me. There is a great strength and uniqueness that you have in consoling and guiding others that I've never seen in any other soul. I've met many wonderful Vaishnava teachers in our society, and although I receive siksa from them, I am not left with the same impact that I get from you. When I took shelter in ISKCON, I really took shelter in you. When you speak and teach, I really hear and feel Krishna coming through you and hitting my heart. It is natural, it is powerful and it is special. This is how I knew you were my Guru and my guide for life. I don't have this relationship nor feeling toward other siksa gurus.

I reflect on my life since coming in contact with you and feel really blessed to be under your care and protection. You travel to teach, consul and guide devotees through the intricacies and hangups of this world, relationships, and spiritual life. I am always inspired by your words and guidance, as are many. I see that I have a long, long, long, long way to go but I have hope because you are encouraging and give the tools to empower me and anyone who wants it. What more could a disciple ask of you? You are always giving and nurturing to so many. I've witnessed you give shelter and protection to so many. I've seen you engage devotees in direct service. You are constantly giving out mercy. Many times I think, does anybody see what I see? You are so merciful and compassionate.

My offering to you is my great endeavor in continuing my education in religious studies and the teaching work I plan to do to bring as many people to Krishna as possible. I am lacking in so many ways. I am not learned, I am not as disciplined as I could be nor the best example of a devotee, but I will strive to improve and fulfill this mission that I have to you.

Dearest Guru Maharaj,

*Please accept my humble obeisances in the dust of your lotus feet
All glories to Srila Prabhupada
All glories to Your merciful self.*

Happy appearance day. Thank you for being born.

Just like the first time I ever got a chance to write a Vyas Puja offering , I am late again. All this while I couldn't really gather where to start & where to end. Your love, wisdom, care know no bounds and neither do your glories. Since I have my own version of the language (LOL) - I'm actually scared to write (also because I don't want to end up writing something worth 5 offerings)

Jokes & craziness aside, I've been awaiting this day since the day we went to see the doctors. I still remember the sweet, innocent look on your face when I told the man- "67 years" and you said "Its still 3 weeks, yamuna. I'm still not old. I'm 57". I just kept wondering how exalted yet humble you are. Not that I didn't know that already but it was just a one off situation I myself had a chance to witness. Every time I think about you, I'm blown away with the fact that it was only 2 years & a few months ago that you appeared in my life and turned everything upside down. I cannot believe myself what you've done to me and many others that I've heard from or the ones I've seen coming to you for guidance & you just flood them with so much mercy beyond what we can all imagine receiving. Thank you for being born and for doing all that you've done or are doing. I am struggling to find any words which factually represent my heart's expression of gratitude so here is a poem I wrote a while ago but never sent it. (Thank you for reading all the poems and letters I ever sent.

A fountain of attributes as a master you possess, Compassion, love, wisdom and transcendental success.

*I admired your voice for years from far,
Heard your melodies day in day out.
Never knew it was you ,
The man who's going to pull me out.*

*Introduced as a 17 year old girl,
I knew nothing it was time for the new phase & a new girl.
With that phone call, you changed my life,
Gave me everything for which I always strived.*

*A month later, we met..
As your eyes opened wide and a smile appeared, Resistance and fear from my heart - they cleared, 'Hare Krishna Special Sakti' you said as a joke, 'Hare Krishna Guru Maharaj ', I replied with a choke.*

*Some years later I am humbled to say,
I'm still around to glorify Your Divine Grace on your birthday,
Who knew the mercy Krishna was throwing, to give me a guide who's Bhakti is glowing.*

*I am nobody of significance, and at the height of insolence,
But by your mercy Guru Maharaj,
Yes, I am blessed by separation.*

*I'll finish by saying all glories to you,
All glories to your love for that little boy blue.*

Please forgive me for all the offences I've ever committed at your lotus feet.

Thankyou for keeping me engaged day in day out, can never ever thank you enough for it. I know I've said it a hundred times and here I am again- my life is incomplete without you & the services for your service is my life! It is the motivation to live by it all. Thank you for being the best father a daughter could ask for.

All Glories to you Beloved Gurudev!!!*

*I wrote this poem with my being to you.
Drops of full moon
In the dark night of full moon
Where the darkness become lightness
Where the deers can see the unseen
Where there are bright magic sparkles and the mysteriousecret is quiet.
None can see with eyes,
None can walk with feet,
None can talk with mouth
They only breath for Him.
They want to love Him.
An instant without His perfum
Is a long river of salty water
A moment without His glace
Is an endless cold darkness.
Everybody wants His Love
Very few are willing to give for it
Only magic rare souls*

*Can walk into the forest
And remove the strong branches
Of heavy dark sparks.
Everhbody is watching
Very few can actually feel the air at tune next Him
Brave are those souls!!!
I bow down before them!!!
Lots of overcome pain
Millions of brave answers,
Thousands of nights in doing
High Unique Moof In Long Increasing
Taste for the pleasure of the greatest Youthful Lover.
Please Great dear Soul!!!
Let me touch your shadow and walk upon your footprint.
I hold a hope that... Maybe only by seeing your eyes... and only maybe... One day.
I can actually smell His perfume again... .*

The past year has been a year of transformation. Since your last vyasapuja in 2016 so much has happened. In the past full year I have accepted you as my spiritual master and you were so kind to accept me as your fallen disciple. So much has been revealed to me, so much purification has passed and so much compassion and sweetness I have felt. You have been so kind, patient and wise with me. I have learned so much through your teachings and through associating with you personally. I'm so so fortunate to be able to see so much of you where others have to bare being separated from you for sometimes more than 1 year.

Being in your physical presence I feel your greatness and I see my conditioning oohhh so clearly. I'm ever so small and fallen. Your advice, kind and harsh words have been life changing. I have seen with my own eyes how you deal with each and every situation, devotees and unexpected happenings. I have been thinking what is my main realization when it comes to you Guru Maharaj as a liberated soul. It's difficult to choose but what sticks with me the most is your desire, persistence and love to please and follow the mission of your Guru Maharaj Srila Prabhupada. This love you have for him has touched me dearly and through this love for him I feel my relationship with him finally developing. I feel and see the necessity to follow the principles, read his books, chant and follow his instructions. To overcome anarthas with kindness and dedication, perform devotional service in the right mood, become a pure devotee and most important share Krsna Consciousness with all those souls out there. It is through this love that I'm able and inspired to have a relationship with Srila Prabhupada. When I see you, I see him. I understand the depth of Srila Prabhupada and I understand that for me to please you I must please Srila Prabhupada. I hope one day to make you proud, to please you.

I have much more to say but I think you know me well enough now to understand me and my mood. I will stop here and keep it short for once. Last thing.

*Thank you, Hare Krsna to you, Happy birthday.

Dearest Guru Maharaja,

*Please accept my most humble obeisances in the dust of Your lotus feet.
All glories to You on this most auspicious celebration of Your Vyasa Puja!*

You inspire everyone, and especially Your disciples and well-wishers, to develop a deep commitment and attachment to our eternal relationship with the Holy names of the Lord.

Every day, by Krishna's grace, I realise more and more how fortunate I am - and we all are as Your disciples and aspiring servants to have come in contact with a pure, bona fide Guru in the line of Lord Caitanya and Srila Prabhupada.

I truly wish to make some serious progress this year in my Krishna Consciousness, serving you and the Sattva project, I sincerely feel I am not qualified but I desire to become qualified and I am committed to this, I believe this is my life mission to serve you and Sattva and bring your wisdom to as many people as possible to give them the truth.

I am forever grateful for your visits to Australia, by just having your personal association it has left a deep impact on my immediate family in ways I would have never expected, I still cant believe how blessed we are and I am so grateful! I make it my personal mission to bring you to Australia as often as we possibly can so that the devotees have good fortune of just one minute of your time and presence.

Somehow, everyday I feel just as close to you as if you were here with us again in Sydney and seeing you every day. I truly feel this in my heart - last year when you left I felt pain that just would not pass and this year after you left I just feel loved and protected and connected, that no matter what I face in life that with your care, support, guidance and mercy that I can make it.

I pray on this day that You will give me the intelligence, patience, humility and determination to understand what it really means to take shelter of Your lotus feet.

Dear Guru Maharaja,

Please accept my humble obeisances. All glories to Srila Prabhupada. All glories to you on this auspicious day of your vyasa puja.

I wish you a very happy Vyasa puja and I pray to Srimati Radharani for many blessings and happy returns for you. This past year has been full of so many realisations and many new and wonderful spiritual experiences, by your blessings and mercy. I feel so grateful and extremely blessed that you are always there ready to assist me through my devotional creeper and your unconditional service in trying to get me and so many others back and to Godhead is something that I am always indebted to you by.

One of the biggest realisations this year was only just recently when you spent time here in Sydney and I was so fortunate to have so much of your association. I actually realised how all you do 24/7 is just purely serve Prabhupada, his mission and your family. I was very humbled and it inspired me so much how you are so detached yet so driven, motivated and how you serve with so much compassion and kindness as well. This is the example which really struck me most and it's something that I am also trying to aspire to be like. It was also wonderful to see how a true Grehasta marriage should be, by your example with Jahnavā and I hope that one day I too can follow in this way.

Your wonderful lectures are now being listened to by so many of my devotee and even non devotee friends and so many devotees are always singing your glories and praises to me on how your lectures have helped them so extremely much. The way you interpret sastra and krishna consciousness is in such a way that everyone can really understand the deeper yet practical meaning and actually apply it to their lives, this is one of your many virtues and it has helped me in my krsna consciousness so much already as well as so many others. So thank you for spending so many hours on recording them.

Whenever I am struggling with something in life I always try and think how would Gurudev handle this situation and what advise would he give me now? By keeping this in my mind it helps me so much with dealing in my day to day life so I am so very grateful. Since taking initiation from you my reading has also improved I'm finding that I'm now really enjoying reading Bhagavatam and I'm reading more daily. My taste for preaching has returned and am always sharing your lectures with newer people I meet and also devotees too. When chanting Japa, I'm also finding that I am starting to relish it more and not having as many days where I feel like "I HAVE to chant" now I'm actually happy to chant and I enjoy chanting! So thank you so much because of your encouragement and mercy I feel that these areas are really starting to improve for me.

There are still so many areas I need to improve on, and everyday I am trying to please you by trying to follow your instructions, listen to your guidance and pray for your mercy so I can continue to grow and also help others just like you do.

One thing I saw posted recently by Prabhupada was a quote from him saying "Just give this one life to Krishna" And this really struck me, because it reminds me of when you say, "All you have to do is follow the process" so I want to follow the process as diligently as I can, try and serve you as best as I can, and try my absolute best to give this one life to Krsna!

Hare Krishna Guru Maharaj,

I am thankful to Krishna for This Day that you descended into this world to deliver Fallen souls like us. I Pray to Sri Sri Radhe Shyam for Your Good Health to continue preaching Krishna Consiousness all over the world and deliver as many souls as possible from their life of ignorance.

I still remember the Day in Mayapur seeing you first time after accepting as My Spiritual Master.

I Always remember that day and the time spent with you during my stay In Sri Mayapur Dham. I start smiling whenever the thoughts comes in my mind of Mayapur Dham. I cherished so many good memories of my life with you there.

Last year when I got married with Sankirtana Priya, I have no words to thank you enough for what you did for me there to make me feel the Most fortunate Disciple. I have not seen or heard about any Guru to sing and and dance in a disciple Marriage and to Carry Marriage procession from the very beginning till the end. Everyone was telling me that you are very fortunate to have a Guru like this who is with you throughout. We felt Eternally blessed to have Your Grace's Presence. Guru Maa was also very Kind to be there and Bless us and guided us for our new life after marriage.

I still remember the days when we came to attend your grace classes at your house and how foolish was I for dozing in between and you smilingly sprinkled water on my face to wake me up during the class and then after the class, We had a small japa walk till The Sri Sri Krishna Balram temple. I experienced the most blissful moment while seeing you dance and sing in ecstasy during Damodar aarti. Having Darshan together of You and their Lordships at the same time was my life;s greatest blessing.

I am trying to work on your instructions to spread Krishna Consciousness through Harinam Sankirtan.

Please Bless me so that I may render little service to the mission of HDG Srila Prabhupad and spread Harinam sankirtan. Please give me strength to fulfill your Instructions and become a little instrument to the Srila Prabhupad Family.

I want to thank you for all your guidance and support to make me a better person that I am trying to be. Please guide me and chastise me for all the offences I make so that i can rectify my never ending mistakes and one day I can make you proud somehow.

*We pray to The Supreme Lord for you to continue preaching and serving His Divine Grace Srila Prabhupad and Fulfilling Your Guru;s Instructions.
Many Many Happy Returns Of The Day Guru Maharaj.*

Please accept this as an offering on the Most Auspicious occasion of your Appearance.

Dearest Guru Maharaj,

Please accept my most humble obeisances. All glories to Srila Prabhupada and your lotus feet.

I bow at your lotus feet and beg for your mercy on the auspicious occasion of your vyasa puja. Every year I struggle to find the words to describe what you mean to me, how much I can never repay you and how grateful I am to have met you. I find they do not it justice or just can't capture how deep the indent on my heart is from meeting you and the guidance you have given me.

I was in a very dark place when I first met you. I was ready to give up, felt like my life had no meaning and could see no way out. I felt completely helpless and felt deep pain every day. I prayed so dearly to Krishna for guidance and help, as at the moment I finally understood what it meant to feel helpless and call sincerely, even if for a split second. Krishna answered my prayers in ten fold. I never expected such a ray of life to appear in my life and bring me closer to Krishna. That ray of lifewas you, guru maharaj.

I recognise the lack of good qualities and sincere service attitude that I have. Most things I do are with lots of faults, mistakes and hardly any love or devotion. Yet you selflessly accept each time, without question. You never doubt me for my efforts, never turn me away no matter how awful or silly my problem is and you never shut the door on me, even when I feel the rest of the world does.

That showed me the meaning of unconditional love. My brother once said to me he didn;t think being truly selfless existed in this world and we debated over this for some time. I finally realised at one point that the love a spiritual master has for his disciple is that, truly selfless and unconditional. I have nothing to offer you, I do nothing but cause trouble for you, yet you still take the time out to take care of me when it should be me doing that for you! I will be forever grateful for you entering my life and helping me see that serving Krishna is the perfection of our lives and that is what should strive for.

Hearing your stories of difficulties, struggle and anxiety that you experience makes me see my problems in such a different perspective. I understand that my difficulties are so menial compared to that and I need to learn from your example on how to face them and how to continue serving. Dear Guru Maharaj, nothing in the world is more dear to me than your service and the hope that I can serve you in some way, despite the lack of qualification from myself.

Srila Bhaktisiddhanta Saraswati Thakur once said:

There is no work as auspicious as serving the spiritual master. Of all worship, the worship of the Supreme Personality of Godhead is the greatest. But worship of the lotus feet of the spiritual master is even greater than the worship of the Supreme Personality of Godhead. Unless this is firmly realised, we cannot understand what saintly association means; we cannot understand what the shelter of the spiritual master means; and we cannot understand that we are dependent and he is our maintainer. That is exactly what your mercy is to me. I have a long way to go in having any realisation regarding this but I pray continuously that I may make it there one day, and I have absolute conviction and faith that if I follow your instructions, I have no doubt that it will happen.

Whenever I read your letters, emails or posts I always feel it speaks straight to my heart, sometimes to the point where I think "how did he know that? I haven't even written to him yet?" and I smile silently to myself because of how magical and wonderful it is.

You give your time so selfless to everyone regardless of who they are and never judge them despite what they might have done. You provide guidance for me and show me what it means to be an expert psychotherapist! I can truly say I am learning from the best and strive to help people just a fraction of what you do and pray I can continue serving you in this capacity.

I truly treasure the funny moments we share, or the LOLs in your email (which always make me actually laugh out loud when I read it) and hope these moments can be etched in my heart forever.

Please forgive me for any offences I have committed, knowingly or unknowingly at your lotus feet.

Please forgive me for not serving you the way you should be served. Please forgive me for the lack of sincerity in my service. Please forgive me for having no love and devotion in any service. Please forgive me for being a useless disciple. Thank you for accepting whatever menial small service I do.

Thank you for always guiding me like a father. Thank you for showing me what it means to selflessly love and serve Krishna, to have complete and unflinching faith in your spiritual master and to have so much love for Srila Prabhupada. I never tire of hearing you say: Prabhupada said. I aspire to follow in your lotus footsteps and pray some ounce of love for my spiritual master and Krishna may appear in my heart.

Dearest Guru Maharaj, please always keep me engaged in your service. No matter where you are, what you do, who you are with, I always want to be situated at your lotus feet and pray I can always take shelter of them - that is the perfection of my life.

Dear Prabhu,

Please accept my humble obeisance at the dust of your lotus feet. I feel indeed greatly privileged to participate in your vasa puja. You have been more than a siksa guru to me.

Sometime I got fatherly affection from you and sometimes you have been more than a friend.

You are one of the most sincere disciples of Srila Prabhupada. You are empowered by him to do extraordinary services. Your teaching has changed my perception & helped me to grow in spiritual life.

On this auspicious day of your appearance, I sincerely pray that everyone who comes in contact with you may make the most of your association & imbibe those teachings into their lives. You have too much to give & share. Your teaching to very practical, difficult things becomes easy to understand.

May you succeed in every service you undertake for Srila Prabhupada & Lord Krishna

Dearest Gurudeva

Please accept our most humble obeisances at the dust of your lotus feet.

On this auspicious day of your Vyasapuja ,let us express our gratitude, respect and love to you. You are actually one of the many glorious sons of His Divine Grace Ac Bhaktivedanta Swami Prabhupada as you have taken His order as the goal of your life to save the fallen souls from the darkness of ignorance which is also called maya. Our greatest misfortune is we can't dedicate even one percent of our life for you whereas you and other Srila Prabhupada's disciple have completely dedicated your lives for Him. By doing this you have actually shown how a disciple should be dedicated to his spiritual master. You have dedicated your whole life to Srila Prabhupada so that His mission can go forward and spread around the whole world and on the other hand we don't want to get out of our comfort zone. You have done so many sacrifices for your spiritual master and that during your youth days. You left your family behind ,your car and even your passion for the ocean. You have left all these for doing tapasya like rising early for Mangala aarti, distributing Srila Prabhupada's books for hours during a day and all that very often with a very little prasadam. How hard must have been those days but still you were successful in your mission of pleasing Your Gurumaharaj because you have made His instructions the goal of your life because you were completely surrendered to Him.

On the contrary we are not being able to completely follow your simple instructions because we are so unfortunate that we lack the quality of good disciples. Therefore our sincere wish is to try and follow on your footsteps just like you have done for your Gurumaharaj regardless of time ,place,and circumstances.

We once again thank you for giving us an identity of a devotee even if we are not qualified to call ourselves a devotee and a disciple. You have even make us aware how precious is this human birth,time and how short is our lifetime.

As a caring father you always instructs us how we should manage our grhasta and spiritual life. You give us the courage to maintain our Sadhana bhakti and to develop the power to tolerate in moments of hardships.

You also teach us how to love and respect others so that we can bring them at the shelter of the lotus feet of His Divine Grace. AC BHaktivedanta Swami Srila Prabhupada and of Sri Krishna.

*How can I try to glorify you and thank you for your causeless mercy, if all my words are not

*You my dear guru Maharaja are the only one who can rescue me from ignorance, awake me from my sleepiness, rouse in me love for Krishna and lead me back to God.
With your humility, enthusiasm and surrender, you inspire us to give more of ourselves because you yourself have given it all for Srila Prabhupada's mission. You guide us on the path of forgiveness and humbleness, teach us to connect in a loving manner, and heal us with your sweet, wise words.
You are always very attentive to serve your disciples, giving us more than we can ever repay. And although you are constantly dedicated to your projects, travels and lectures, you always find a moment to answer our letters and offer us your love, mercy and teachings. I will be for ever in debt with you Gurudeva, and trying to serve you is my purpose, because, otherwise, nothing makes sense.*

*Just by listening to his voice in a song or in a class or by reading his name reminds me of Krishna and return me to the right path. This is possible thank you to his love.
Thank you for your blessings to me and my family.
Always we will be waiting for your visit.

*Hare Krishna Mahatma Prabhu,
Please accept my humble obeisances,
All glories to Srila Prabhupada*

I am deeply indebted to you for all the efforts you put in to help people like me - helping us improve our japa, helping us inculcate habits conducive to devotional service and helping us appreciate the process by being a great living example. Meditating on the Japa Affirmations designed by you, has helped me improve my japa significantly. I have found each affirmation to be so potent, it immediately takes my japa to another level - however I have to work on maintaining at that level. Although I have miles to go before I chant deep, and although I still behave stupidly most of the times, this experience of chanting better will gradually uplift me. And I hope good chanting soon becomes a habit for me.

Also, earlier, hearing my chanting was the epitome for me, but after hearing you talk about the importance of chanting with emotion, it was like turning on a switch using which I could feel I am really accessing spiritual wealth. Whenever I chant with emotion, I can feel that I am doing something real, and the rest of the time when I am not chanting with emotion, I can understand that I am not helping myself. There is still a long way to go - most of my chanting is still without any emotion, but I now know the higher standard and I know that the switch is with me.

I also am very thankful to you for the daily videos, the contents in all of them are like potent bullets, just meditating on them raises my consciousness immediately. And they are extremely helpful - all of it is relevant to our day-to-day experiences and thus we can immediately apply them. Your explanations regarding humility, false ego, mind control, sincerity are all extremely beneficial - I download many of them and try to listen to them repeatedly, so that they get imprinted in my mind, and I try to gradually start applying them. Too often my mind is obstinate enough to not allow me to think about them, but I am hopeful this will improve.

Thank you for all the effort you put in to help us become better devotees. I am eternally indebted to you. Please bless me so that I can develop a higher taste for chanting the Holy Names.

patitanam pavanebhyo vaishnavebhyo namo namah

Hare Krishna dear Transcendental Jokester. Please accept my heartfelt pranam. All Glories to Srila Prabhupada.

I feel much fortunate and unworthy at the same time being able to write an offering for the auspicious day of your birth. Your guidance and support, whenever I seeked, are like life saving realizations in the right time. The love and care you gave me in the past couple of years of association are part of the vital nourishment I received from the vaishnavas. It's always a "wow thing" when we refer to the disciples of Prabhupada, as they have been in the very personal and physical proximity of dear Prabhupada. As such, referring to them, always is packed with much reverence and a sense of superiority. After having been in your close association and personal talks, I arrived at the realizations how even great disciples of dear Prabhupada can also be so personal and loving and at the same time full of transcendental humor.

Every time your responses to my emails come with some instruction which aids in "upgrading" my mood and consciousness in the service of dear Prabhupada and Gauranga. The daily personal instructions via your quotes and transcriptions (which are send by much appreciated endeavour of dear Yamuna and others) boost the immunity of my Sadhana. Not having many words for the expression of my gratitude for your service and love for us, I only pray to the Lordship and dear Prabhupada, to bless you with good health and opportunities to share the mines of supreme knowledge you have acquired. Please keep me in the shade of your loving care and shelter. I shall end my insignificant adoration of a great Mahtama with the simple poetry I composed in 2015 about one of our nice association and my very significant realization. Thank you very much.

With Love and regards,

Your aspiring servant

*On the verge to be dumped
"Become humble; just don't make a show,
Else I'll leave you alone and go!"
Said my Siksha gurudev out of overwhelming love,
Oh! The lotus feet of this Mahatma, I want to serve.
I'm just a show bottle without a tinge of honesty,
Wicked is my mind, so very nasty!
As I said "I submit at your lotus feet,
By your mercy, the divine couple soon I'll meet."
He chastised me knowing well how fake was the remark,
And spoke to dispel the veil so dark.
"I'll dump you in the dust bin,
And keep you there,
To disobey me don't you dare!"
I laughed but was afraid,
With a trembling voice, I said,
"I shall live my life to follow your instruction,
Else I know I'll only march to progressive destruction!
Please forgive for the offenses I commit,
And to execute spiritual service, please make me fit."
In response my Gurudev said, "Forget about offences,
Make no more mess!
Think about service,
Your miseries shall cease!"
Oh dear siksha gurudev,
I beg you to please save!
I'm your unworthy dasi,
Forever begging for your mercy.
You are my only ray of hope,
By your grace the illusion of Maya I'll be able to cope.

Hare Krishna Prabhujii,

Please accept my humble obesciences at your Lotus Feet.

All Glories to Sri Guru and Sri Gauranaga!

All Glories to Srila Prabhupada!

Since the onset of our spiritual journey we learn that the first step towards understanding Krishna is through sravanam or our sense of hearing. So, when I first heared your Brahama Samhita, I was completely enchanted with your voice.

The kirtans resonated with my inner being and led me to visit the Krishna.com website. Soon thereafter, I began to connect with your lectures on Krishna.com. Your lectures on 'Living a Life of Complete Forgiveness' and the 'japa' workshop have changed my life.

As my understanding towards Krishna consciousness grew deeper, I desired your darshan but believed it to be too surreal to come true. The distance between Alachua and Mumbai made this desire seem impossible to manifest.

That was also a very difficult time in my life when I felt I had hit rock bottom!

I felt defeated by the challenges that had engulfed me completely and pulling myself up was next to impossible.

Just then, something extremely unexpected and extraordinary happened. I saw you sitting in the temple. At first, I was in a state of complete disbelief and could not believe what my eyes were actually seeing. (Krishna has perfect timing, doesn't He!)

Ever Since, you have been nothing but kind and merciful towards me. You encouraged me to regain my self-confidence and I felt accepted by the Lord. You instructed me like a father and pulled me out of darkness. You brought light into my life. For this, I am eternally grateful to you.

In this spiritual journey, I still have a lot of learning to do and I earnestly pray I am able to follow your instructions. Please bless me to be able to serve you better and be an eternal servant of my spiritual masters and Srila Prabhupada.

With utmost gratitude,

In your service

My beloved Gurudeva,

Please accept my humble obeisances to your lotus feet. All Glories to Srila Prabhupada, All Glories to You.

I am really sorry for not writing to you last several months, I have no excuses, but I don't want let the opportunity go without glorify You in this auspicious day of your Vyasapuja. I have been thinking lot of you and how your presence in my life is transforming everything every single moment... Recently I had the opportunity to take the forgiveness workshop with Prem Kishor.. (as before I only organized but never taked) but now I finally did it and now my perception about everything is changing, It's as if I had been stripped of a blindfold or a pile of rubbish from above. I can't wait to take it again with you personally. You are more than a father in my life, my guide, my shelter, my light on the way, your mission is my mission and I pray Krishna to be part of it. Every single day I am grateful to Krishna because He blessed my life with so magnificent human beings as you and your wonderful disciples are.

Thank you so much! again and again... for your exemplary life, for all the love you show us, for all the effort you put on your mission, I love everything you do and everything you represent on the people's lives, I know your preaching will touch the heart of many million lives more... No words are enough to say the wonderful soul you are so kind, so lovely simply amazing and wonderful!

I can't wait to see you soon!

With all my love, with all my heart.

A very happy vyasa puja on your auspicious appearance day .

I want to thank you from the bottom of my heart for all the endeavors of yours to help struggling devotees to become steady in Krishna consciousness . You are so expert at guiding in chanting, development of vaisanava qualities etc. Although I am sinful inspite of hearing your regularly but I have a great hope i will overcome all anarthas one day simply by following you. A big thanks to the wonderful service to yamuna mtji who is always sharing nectar. She may make her way back home just by being on WhatsApp and helping others.

Respectful Mahatma Prabhuji,

Please accept my most respectful humble obeisance's unto you.

All glories to your preaching services to this world. I really feel blessed when I came to know about your teachings. The day when I heard your class in Bangalore for the first time, I decided that I should not miss any of your class. I feel the topics, you have talked are perfectly suited to my advancement. Your recordings of all lectures in CD are an amazing service to this society. Any one in any part of the world can take advantage of it. Based on my hearing, I understand that you are a specialist especially in mind, male & female relationship, Japa, Guru tattva, humility, etc.. The deep insights you have given on various topics are absolutely clear and a must to hear for all. For last one year, I have been hearing your classes atleast one hour per day. It has helped me to practice Krishna Conscious with the much needed enthusiasm. As recommended by you in many lectures, I am able to recommend your instructions to many devotees. I am glad to note that you are also one of the initiating guru in ISKCON. I feel that your practical exercises in various courses are very relevant to all. I am enthused when I see you travelling all over the world, for spreading Krishna Consciousness. I have been asking you several doubts through emails and your instant replies make me wonder how compassionate you are. The way, you have handled the sensitive topics like falling down of few gurus in initial days is amazing. It gave me deep insight, how hard work for Prabhupad disciples to bring ISKCON to present level. As mentioned in your class, I also got up with diksha guru syndrome & I used to feel bad for having more attractions for prabhupad & his follower's teachings instead of only diksha guru teachings. From your class, all are clarified nicely.

I pray to Srila Prabhupad that your glorious service to this society to continue in most successful way as per your plans.

Dearest Gurumaharaj,

A Very Happy Appearance Day to You.

I hope and pray to Radheshyamsunder that You continue to guide us many years to come in your typical, loving, extraordinary tolerant, down to earth manner. I am always amazed at kindness and compassion Your grace extends to every soul You meet.

Many many eternal thanks to You and Srila Prabhupada for opening our material eyes with genuine knowledge and appreciation of wonderful Lord Krsna. We were unaware of Goloka Vrindavan, You made us aware of it, so much so that now we yearn for it. You connected us to wonderful world of Krsna. It is my belief that His Divine Grace Srila Prabhupada brought me to Vrindavan Dham, and You helped me to develop connection with Krsna

Behind the success of ISKCON, lies the immense hard work an immeasurable austerities followed by His Divine Grace Srila Prabhupada and his disciples. My only desire is to satisfy You and Srila Prabhupada by becoming more and more enthusiastic to spread the wonderfully blissful movement of Sri Chaitanya Mahaprabhu, so that the holy name spreads in every nook and corner of the world thereby eradicating the misery of the world. If we sincerely work under your guidance for satisfaction and pleasure of Krsna, then we are confident that Krsna will help us in every way. We pray that You empower us to be Yours and Srila Prabhupada's fully surrendered souls and thus fulfill Yours and Prabhupada's desire to make the entire universe Krsna Conscious.

I am an insignificant servant of Yours and I pray to You and Srila Prabhupada to guide me and continue to do so eternally. We pray to You for spiritual strength, so that we can share this matchless gift of Krsna consciousness with as many souls as possible. May the mirror of our heart reflect the soothing rays of your kindness and thus benefit those who are open to receive it. It is my dream to reach out to every soul in all villages and towns, and help people relieve themselves of misery by chanting the holy name. I know that it is virtually impossible but by Your blessings and Krsna's empowerment, everything is possible. When I look at myself, I see a very tired, old, diseased person, a neophyte, groping hard to develop love for Radhashyamsunder. I have no good qualities, nor is there any good in my existence. Solely due to Yours and Srila Prabhupada's mercy I am Krsna Conscious and in complete bliss, trying to please Srila Prabhupada, Radhashyamsunder and the Vaishnavs.

When will I reach ecstasy? When will tears roll from eyes in love of lordships? When will such love for Krsna awaken in my heart. O when my stone heart melts.

Gurumaharaj, You possess immense powers of tolerance and compassion, otherwise how could You tolerate a stupid, good for nothing person like me. Please do not hesitate to chastise me in whatever way You feel fit, to reform me, so that I may engage by You as an instrument in Srila Prabhupada's mission forever..

I am a neophyte, learning more every moment, but I have You as my dear Gurumaharaj, and going according to your guidance, I hope to make contribution in Your service to HDG Srila Prabhupada.

Please kindly forgive me of my many shortcomings and millions of defects. Please continue to guide me so that I may be successful in dedicating the rest of my life in helping you fulfill Your inspiring mission.

Gurumaharaj, please continue to shower me with your divine merciful glance and reveal to me the full extent of Your loving mercy.

Dear Gurumaharaj,

Please accept my obeisances in the dust of your lotus feet. All glories to Srila Prabhupada.

All glories to your Divine Grace on this auspicious day of your vyasapuja.

Words alone are simply not sufficient to express my sincerest gratitude to you for coming to get me in this lifetime and to save me from this material world. Since your arrival into my life when I reflect over the last eleven months your contribution has been priceless. I remain forever in your debt for your unconditional love, support, guidance, energy and all the time you have given me. Being constantly on the move and not being short of spirit souls that need your help somehow you found time for me and because of your input into my life in such a short time of knowing you, trusting you, revealing my heart to you and following your guidance I have grown these last eleven months more than I have in twenty plus years.

Thank you is not enough, I doubt any words I use can ever convey my gratitude to you.

In such a short time span, you have changed and are continuing to change my perception of myself, through your teachings I have understood the importance of understanding the self-first before I can even begin to relate to Sri Krsna. Through the endless hours of your daily videos, quotes, classes, seminars and workshops that you have invested your heart and soul into my levels of self-awareness have gone through the roof. I am hitting levels of self-awareness I never thought possible, that were always a dream, an ideal that I resigned myself to because I did not know how to attain. Then you entered my life "with the torch light of knowledge" you revealed so many things to me about myself either I did not see or I did not have the courage to face and work on. You even gave me the solution and following you blind at first having resigned to myself I took your hand and by doing so until this day and every day I am growing.

It is through your teachings and your unique profound delivery I am becoming a better person, a more sincere, accountable, responsible and willing individual. I am enthused and inspired by your character and can see despite the hardships, difficulties and adversities you have encountered you are living proof that the Krishna Consciousness process works and the benefits one can derive by following the process. These days because of your presence in my life, fear is my friend, when I get really scared, feel alone, in the process of taking a leap of faith I close my eyes and there you are. I see your smile and you laughing urging me to go through the wall that is projected by my mind and you guide me through. On each and every occasion your words manifest at the right time and you reveal to me what I need when I need and when I am capable to accept it. All this is closely coupled with the fact you have always been so patient, preserving and loving in our exchanges for your words and advice penetrate my defences like no other. Your words go so deep that once I get over my ego I know I have nowhere to hide and so walk through the difficulty, face it head on and as always you minimise the pain by supporting me through. I am so blessed and thankful for you coming to get me.

You see things in me I have never seen, you give me the confidence, ability and intelligence of how to move out of my own way so you can bring me closer to God – Sri Krsna so that he can work his magic and remove my defects.

In the little time, I have known you my spiritual life has improved, I feel more connected with Sri Krsna and his devotees, I believe these days I am in a position of sincerity, more so then ever. At the same time, I know I have so much more to work on so I beg you for your blessings and prayers to guide me through, to help me get back home, in this life time. My heart tells me you are the one who can guide me through these difficulties and challenges. I know with you by my side I can overcome anything.

In the days ahead, I pray I can connect with you on an even more deeper platform so I can follow out your orders and instructions and I pray for your mercy that I am able to do this in the right frame of mind for there is nothing more important to me in all the worlds then seeing the smile on your face. I pray to you for your mercy so that I can exercise the same levels of humility, patience, forgiveness and compassion as you when dealing with spirit souls. I simultaneously beg your forgiveness for my shortcomings and limitations. I will forever try and give my best to try and serve you and to help you in your mission to please your beloved spiritual master His Divine Grace Srila Prabhupada.

I am aware these days' words come easy so I beg you for your continued help and support so I can perform these actions through my behaviour. To stop thinking of I and to think more about your mission and forever aim to serve you, selflessly every second of every day. For what else could have any importance then satisfying the beloved Spiritual Master.

Thank you so much for all you have done and that you continue to do. I feel so blessed to know you, to have met you and to be able to speak to and communicate with you.

Please bestow your mercy so I am forever able to follow your will because I know your will is in line with Sri Krsna's will and so it avoids me thinking of me, mine and I as that always gets me into trouble. I know by following your will, your instruction and guidance you can lead me back home, back to Godhead. However should that not be your will for me I am ready to accept as you desire because as merciful as you are I know you will not leave me standing alone, I really have the utmost faith in you and all that you do and that you stand for.

Your insignificant servant,

Dear Gurudeva,

Please accept my humble obeisances on the day of your Vyasa Puja. All glories to Srila Prabhupada.

For quite some time I noticed a subtle but persistent feeling that something was missing in my life. I attributed this to an unsuitable job, home, etc. However once my material situation improved I observed that this emptiness was still there. I knew I wanted to pursue my spiritual life more seriously but I felt lost, directionless and unmotivated. Gradually Krishna helped me to understand that what I really needed was a Guru. When I arrived in Vrindavan for Kartik last year I implored Lord Nityananda from the bottom of my heart to help me find a Guru. By Krishna's arrangement I met you the next day and received more uplifting, life-changing association over that entire week!

I feel so fortunate to have met you in Vrindavan. You deeply understand the psychology of Krishna Consciousness and therefore are able to help us apply the philosophy holistically. You have inspired positive changes in countless areas of my life including my japa, sadhana, reading, dealings with others, my marriage, my job and more. I pray that I can continue to apply your instructions so I can maintain a more regular, comprehensive practice.

Words cannot express my deepest gratitude for everything that I have learned from you. It is my sincere desire that I may be able to assist you, in some small way, in your service to Srila Prabhupada.

Prabhuji

On your auspicious appearance day I would like to pay my heartfelt gratitude for all the support, guidance and help you have kindly given me for saving me.

Prabhuji, I was deeply inspired by your deep realizations and very practical explanations of extremely deep aspect of Krsna Consciousness especially psychology of a human nature and its connection to devotional service.

Although, I was meeting you for the first time in Mayapur still you gave me plenty of personal time as if you knew me for years. It made me felt like a kind of deep bondage and relationship with you. Because of this only I could very freely and without hesitation ask you all the questions and doubts which were essentially related to my gross anarthas and weakness of the heart. You answered all my questions patiently and cleared all my doubts and helped me to have a very practical understanding of various aspects of Krsna Consciousness . This clear understanding only has helped me to know myself as well as my nature better which laid a foundation for me to have a strong determination to pursue Bhakti throughout my life. Your conversations has proved to be a lifeline for me and will continue to be a source of inspiration for me forever.

Prabhuji I got your help and guidance at such a crucial time which I feel was the most difficult, challenging and toughest phase of my Krsna Conscious life. I could have never fought it alone without your timely support and perfect counselling. Because of your mercy only I could get out of it and practice Krsna Consciousness nicely.

Prabhuji, it was only because of you only I could learn the power of prayers and how to pray in proper mood of surrender and submission, realizing Krsna is all merciful and he can very easily bestow his strength to not let us fall prey to allurements and attractions of Maya even if they are provided.

Prabhuji, I will be ever grateful to you for kindly saving me. I know I won't be able to repay my debt to you but If somehow or the other if I may render some service to you for your pleasure or in your mission to Srila Prabhupada I will consider myself highly fortunate and privileged.

Seeking your prayers and blessings to overcome my weakness and anarthas

All glories to your grace.*

On this most blessed occasion I humbly wish to express my deepest gratitude and homage to you dear Mahatma Prabhu for all that you have done to uplift ISKCON and all the fallen conditioned souls – like myself – who are struggling in temporal existence.

A year ago I was blessed with causeless mercy which afforded me the rare opportunity to serve you on a personal and some what intimate level. I discovered that there is no incongruence between what you say and your behaviour. You preach love, tolerance and respect. In your daily dealing, I have witnessed the manner in which you interact with both C.E.Os and janitors with equal integrity, respect and humility. Thank you for living with empathy and teaching others how to do the same. Even thou you live such an intense life you seem to always have time (or rather eek out time) to encourage me and others by your lectures, your presence, your writings and especially via e mail, even if it's just a few words. This is of tremendous importance to us.

As you say in your book Uplift yourself, change the world, " the world gets better as you get better & your forgiveness and kindness are tested when you are challenged to offer them to those who don't deserve them". In keeping with this sentiment I pray to always be in your favourable association and I hope to one day come to the human platform of life so that I may do something useful for you. I am so undeserving of your precious time and attention, as you are a beacon of hope and compassion you have been ever so kind to me.

From the core of my being, Thank you.

Dear Guru Maharaj,

Please accept my most humble obeisances unto the dust of your lotus feet. All glories to Srila Prabhupada. All glories to your Divine Grace. All glories to this most auspicious day of your Vyasa Puja.

It is a great honour for your disciples, aspiring disciples and wellwishers to entirely concentrate and meditate upon how to please Your Divine Grace on this auspicious occasion of your Vyasa Puja.

Guru Maharaj, You have always encouraged me to share my realisation like a father. I know for sure my life works well only by your blessing. You have been always there for me during my difficulties like a father and helped me to be strong in my spiritual life. You are my saviour to free me to get out of this engagement within this body just like a bird struggling to get freedom from its cage. During my difficulties, I can see Krsna is present and reciprocating within the heart.

As a representative and follower of Srila Prabhupada's instruction, you have come to deliver the transcendental knowledge from the vedic scriptures to the fallen conditioned souls. Guru Maharaj, You are a perfect father, you are a wellwisher to all of us. You have come to bring us close to Krsna and you have committed to us to take us Back to Godhead, to our final destination.

I'm lucky to be loved and cared by you that's no words can say. I humbly pray to please always keep me at your lotus feet. I beg for your mercy so that I get the opportunity to serve you. Hare Krishna.

Dear Mahatma Prabhu,

Hare Krishna. Please accept my humble obeisances. All glories to the lotus feet of Srila Prabhupada!

I am so grateful that Krishna has arranged for me to receive your guidance in such a personalised and sweet way. On this day I would like to express my gratitude for all your teachings, guidance and care. You are an embodiment of integrity and I am constantly amazed by your example. You live and breathe your words and teachings. Due to you I am beginning to understand the meaning of service, mercy, love, integrity, dedication and humility. You have guided me in my spiritual journey so personally. Somehow or another you always speak or write about the exact things which I need in order to come closer to Krishna. Time and time again, whatever I am trying to understand or whatever qualities I need to develop (or remove), you speak about that in so much clarity which I can then apply into my life. How you do this leaves me in awe each time I hear you speak.

When my confidence begins to slip, you raise it up as appropriate. When my false ego begins to get ahead of itself, your words bring it down again. When I do not know which road to take, you give me the wisdom so that I can choose the right path. When I begin to lose inspiration, your words inspire me. When I feel that I don't have strength you give me to strength to do what is right. When I become overwhelmed by others and circumstances, you remind me how to live a life of integrity. When I become too excited, you remind me to stay humble. When my faith flinches, you remind me of my relationship with Krishna. When there is no hope, you give me hope.

I pray our beloved eternal guru Srila Prabhupada and the divine Couple, Sri Sri Radha Krishna, continue to shower Their mercy upon you. I pray that your days may be full of realisations and reflections. I pray all your servants and aspiring servants may be able to assist you in your mission to serve ISKCON.

I pray that many others get the chance to receive your association as I have so that you may touch their lives in the way you have touched mine. I can never express my full gratitude for your presence because what you mean to me and what you have done for me is beyond words. The least I can do is to live this life in such a way so that you may be pleased by my intentions, words and actions.

Please allow me to take the shelter of your lotus feet.

*Your aspiring servant,

Dear Mahatma Prabhu,

First of all very happy Vyasa Puja, it is an honor for me having this opportunity to express my feelings towards you in this offering.

I still remember the very first day I met you, it was at Mexico's Temple, you were with Jaya Gopal Prabhu, you were dressed in casual clothes, I had not idea who you were. But when Jaya Gopal told me "He is my spiritual master" I felt very ashamed and immediately offered obeisances at your feet. That day I had something to do, but I was invited to stay for the class, this has been one of the best decisions in my life.

While I was listening at the class, I was just thinking "He walks his talk, he is really amazing!" And even if I remember very well the question I asked, the most powerful in that moment was your answer and the way you ended telling me: "I think you are already suffering, otherwise you wouldn't be asking... Right?" The moment when you said "Right?" And turned your eyes towards me, with all your love, compassion, understanding, wisdom and that peculiar smile, I just felt blessed.

All your letters, all your classes, all you do is just amazing, when I'm chanting my rounds and for some reason I got distracted, I immediately think "How would I be chanting if HG would be here just by my side?" In that moment I feel you there, looking at me and I focus again in the Holy Name. When I hear you talking about Prabhupāda my biggest wish is to love you as much as you love him, and surrender just the same way you did. I can invest hours and hours listening to your classes and I feel so encouraged to be more KC, to go deeper. You always have the words and the knowledge necessary at the right moment of my life.

The other way I was listening to one of your Facebook classes while cooking, and you rephrased Prabhupāda saying "You've had millions of lives, and in every life you have been taken from Kṛṣṇa, give one life, this one life to Kṛṣṇa and see what happen. If it doesn't work you will have millions of lives to do whatever you want" in that moment my heart was filled with love and I thought "It is true! Just one life, there is too much to win!"

I think it is amazing how much my desire of serving you and Prabhupāda increases with every class, with every letter I send and every answer I get, every daily quote, every video, every picture I receive, every time I remember you. I beg to Kṛṣṇa for giving me the intelligence to completely surrender, to be someone useful in your mission, in Prabhupāda's mission. My heart beats every time I just figured it out.

I dream the day I can be worthy of your love and a person as congruent as you are, with all my love I can say you are more than a father for me, I'm at your service, trying to rewards a little all of that help you have give to this fallen soul.

Please, I beg for your mercy to surrender, to abandon material desires, to give up lust, to be more compassionate, I know I need your blessings because I'm so ignorant that it's just by your mercy that I can go through.

Thank you for your bright, for your love and your inspiration!

Dear Mahatma Prabhu,

*Please accept my most humble obeisances.
All glories to His Divine Grace Srila Prabhupada,
All glories unto you.*

*By the mercy of Suhotra Maharaj, Srila Prabhupada and Sri Caitanya Mahaprabhu
I have been so fortunate to come in contact with You.*

After the disappearance of my dear Gurudev, Suhotra Maharaj, I was left behind with doubts on how to deal with this sudden loss of the spiritual master. It is not a day that happens often in our lives but we all know that it will happen.

As the mind is very strong and always tries to have control, it took me time to see the answer laying in front of me.

There was a big feeling of not dealing correctly with the Guru Disciple relationship if I would take shelter of another Guru.

After many years i realized that this was actually the desire that Suhotra Maharaj had for his disciples, that we would all stay on our spiritual path and take guidance of a bonafide Guru in Srila Prabhupada's iskon after his departure.

I was very happy when you replied me last year that you wanted to guide me!

*Srila Bhaktivinoda Thakur writes in his song 'Ohe Vaisnava Thakura', "I do not find the strength to carry on alone the sankirtana of the holy name of Hari. Please bless me by giving me just one drop of faith with which to obtain the great treasure of the holy name of Krsna."
Life in this material world is very intense, it is a daily fight against drowning in the ocean of misery.*

This process of bhakti yoga is the only way by which we will be able to survive this trap and the only way to get out of this material life.

As aspiring devotees of the Lord we all know that only by the mercy of the Guru we will be able to walk properly on our spiritual path, yet sadly there is still a big gap between Guru and disciples. This space should be made more tight by taking advantage of following the Guru, listening daily to His classess and most important, when we have doubts or when we struggle we should tell our Guru, share what lays on our heart and what disturbs our mind, that is the only way by which we will be able to make advancement because it is only by being open and honest to the Guru that He can see through us and can help us in the best way that is needed.

Just like in church we can see how some times people go to the pastor and confess to Him their sins, we as disciples should also be able to confess our sins or our struggles, that is the only way how the relationship between Guru and us can get more stronger. I am sure that many of us feel ashamed to write negative things, also because we do not want to sound as a bad devotee, but by doing so we will realize that it only makes us better, it clears our hearts and opens our eyes.

You are an ocean of mercy for all of us, our light in the darkness! Your compassion is very strong and soothing, the guidance that You give us through your lectures, talks and workshops is a source of unlimited knowledge that we can use on a daily basis to make spiritual progress.

' a se tomāra, a dīte pāro, tomāra śakati āche' 'Kṛṣṇa is yours. You have the power to give Him to me'

It is by your mercy and compassion that you make the teachings of the Vedas accessible to as many as possible.

Daily you present us the most needed gifts, you give us your knowledge, you give us all of your time for guidance, you encourage us with patience and love like a father has for his kids in need and there where needed you correct us with love and compassion.

Thank you for all the beautiful lessons that you teach us, thank you for the love and guidance. You are a true ocean of mercy and a true source of inspiration.

The following words spoken by Srila Bhaktissidhanta Saraswati Goswami clearly show the need for us to take shelter at the lotusfeet of our Gurudev and to remain in humble service: "I advise all to preach the teachings of Rupa-Raghunath (disciples of Lord Chaitanya) with all energy and resources. Our ultimate goal shall be to become the dust of the lotus feet of Sree Sree Rupa and Raghunath Goswamins. You should all work conjointly under the guidance of your spiritual master with a view to serve the Absolute Knowledge, the Personality of Godhead. You should live somehow or other without any quarrel in this mortal world only for the service of Godhead. Do not please give up the service of Godhead in spite of all dangers, all criticisms and all discomforts. Do not be disappointed for most people in the world do not serve the Personality of Godhead; do not give up your own service which is your everything and all, neither reject the process of chanting and hearing of the transcendental Holy Name of Godhead. You should always chant the transcendental Name of Godhead with patience and forbearance like a tree and humbleness like a straw."

It is by your guidance that we will be able to help Srila Prabhupada in spreading this Krishna conscious movement.

With love

Hare Krishna,

Guru maharaj please accept my humble obessience unto your lotus feet on this happy occasion of your vyas puja.

Maharaj by accepting me as your disciple you have showered mercy upon me I remember Maharaj once I asked for your mercy you said lot of mercy is available from Krishna prabhupad and his devotees if will accept mercy will overflow because of insincerity we are not grabbing that Maharaj same case with me also. i seek blessing from you that i follow your instructions sincerely.

Gurudev the way you are using the modern technology in preaching the way people require and always keep engage yourself in fulfilling the mission of srila prabhupad even though i am not qualified but i pray lord Radha Madhav panchtatva Narsimhdev to keep you healthy and inspire me to serve you gurudev.

Please forgive me if i have committed any offense please bless me so that i become part of your preaching mission

Dear Guru Maharaj,

Please accept my most respectful and humble obeisance's. All glories to Srila Prabhupada and all glories to your loving divine grace.

I wish you a very happy Vyasa-puja and pray to Srimati Radharani for many happy returns on this auspicious day. Guru-Maharaj, this past year has been full of new spiritual experiences and realizations for me. For many years I had been drifting spiritually until Lord Krishna mercifully sent you as my master and savior. During your visit to Australia I was able to witness your unconditional devotion and love for Lord Krishna. Please Guru-Maharaj; instill in my heart a drop of your unconditional love and selfless devotion.

I truly feel protected by you and owe my spiritual growth to your on-line teachings and conversations. You are such an expert preacher that each time I hear you speak I am amazed at how you are able to say exactly what I need to hear! Guru-Maharaj, I had been dealing with a problem in my life on the topic offorgiveness. I had always believed that in order to have forgiveness the two disputing parties had to come together again. I knew this could never be the case in my situation and because of this had not worked on forgiveness in my own heart. It was during our conversation in Govinda's Ashram that you explained to me that forgiveness does not involve the other party but instead a process that happens within each individual. In that moment I felt my heart soften and let go.

Thank you, Guru Maharaj for your wisdom.

How dear you must be to Krishna for your faithful service to Srila Prabhupada. You are always absorbed in your service to your spiritual master, setting an example for your disciples to follow. I remember your instructions everyday they are my inspiration. Your online workshop on Japa is both inspiring and motivating. The quality of my Japa has improved since listening to your teachings. In one of your online workshops Japa is referred to as "our" Japa, meaning to think of Japa as not a solo practice but one done together with Krishna. I now imagine myself sitting across from Krishna doing 'our' rounds together. Thank you, Guru Maharaj.

Gurudeva, it is my sincere desire that I may be able to assist you. Upon you advice I have been given duties from Sundari Radha Devi Dasi. I sincerely hopeby helping her I am helping your service to Srila Prabhupada. Please allow me tostay in devotional service and please allow me to stay close to your lotus feet.

May you live a long life and continue your relentless preaching efforts. Thank Guru Maharaj.

Dear Gurumahaj,

Accept my humble reverences.

You appeared in my life like a sign of Krishna, show me a lot of things that I have in my way that make me suffer. With your advices and clarifications you helped me to take the decisions with Krishna like my goal, now I feel that I made the better choice when I choose you as my Guru.

You give the chance to ask you so many things that I have in my mind and you with your wisdom help me to clarify my steps in my life.

Your classes are so inspiring for me, I really missed it when for some reason I cannot assist. Since the past year the Damodar month had another meaning for me because all the lessons that you give about it, this helped me in my spiritual and material life, thank you again for that.

My japa is everyday better because of the teachings in the workshops that you have given, the funny way that you have to expose the typical mistakes, help me to notice that for long time I had been making courtesy japa. Thank you for that.

I pray every day to Krishna to help me to a better disciple, to help me to serve you in a better way, because with your example as a follower and disciple of Srila Prabhupada show to all people how to must be the surrender to a Guru and how to follow the instructions with love and discipline, at least I want to be 10 % of the disciple that you are for SP.

I wish you a happy Vyasa puja day. Thank you for your mercy, patience and love.

All glories to Srila Prabhupada,

Dear Gurudev,

Please accept my humble obeisances at your lotus feet. All glories to our beloved founder Acharya, Srila Prabhupada and the eternal ocean of love that He is giving us.

When I think of what our relationship means to me, I am filled with gratitude, appreciation, inspiration, affection, wonder and reverence.

I am just sitting here, amidst this material world, in a state of total awe. In this wild storm of voracious senses, you make serving Krsna the most desirable and sublime action. In all honesty, I'm still trembling with the deeply conditioned fear of "what could become of me?" Yet somehow, by your shelter and mercy, I can begin to face the truth of my vulnerability and rise above the torrent of inevitable material suffering to re-establish my real, eternal relationship with Krsna. You make perfecting this fleeting human life possible and returning to my eternal home attainable. Everyday, you give me the greatest gift that I could ever wish for.

I am especially grateful for your personal guidance and on-line preaching, which have helped me so much with managing my challenges and inspired me immeasurably to focus on cultivating my Krsna Consciousness.

Probably most importantly, you have given me the greatest treasure, the Holy Names, in a more profound way than I could have ever imagined. Actually, what you have already given me is more than enough for this lifetime. Your continued association is therefore a source of eternal nectar...

My eyes are filled with tears of love and I pray that I can serve you with all the sincerity in my heart.

Dearest Mahatma Prabhu,

Please accept my humble obeisances. All glories to Srila Prabhupada. All glories to Your Divine Appearance on this most auspicious day of Your Vyasa Pujari.

I feel most blessed to have received your wonderful association. You have been very inspirational in my devotional career to Guru and Gauranga. As I am writing this offering for your pleasure, tears roll down as you have helped me and many others in Sridham Mayapur. Something as simple as "what I believe in". You have successfully helped me to realign my belief in Krishna and thought me to see my own faults. For this I am very indebted.

I recently received your e-mail, where you were discussing about how a devotee should pray. I thought this was very instructive for me. I teared as I realized how difficult it is to pray purely and not ask Lord Krishna for anything. The Lord is always providing all living entities what to speak of His devotees. Thank you very much for sharing your questions and answers and at the same time clearing doubt's and making me feel at ease when I do offer prayers to Lord Krishna.

May Lord Krishna always bless you to continue preaching and helping fallen souls like me. Have a wonderful day and enjoy yourself in the service of Srila Prabhupada.

Dear GuruMaharaj,

Please accept my humble obeisances. All glories to Srila Prabhupada ! All glories to your divine Self and to your unalloyed service to your spiritual master.

This day of your appearance is such a wonderful opportunity to meditate on the unlimited fortune and blessings we have to be able to develop a connection with you.

Few days ago, in New Mayapur, I helped a young devotee couple to clean a house. The house is almost falling apart but they are restoring it. It used to be the house of the first disciple of His Holiness Indradyumna Swami. There, we found many pictures books of His Holiness and some vyasa puja books. I was so amazed by the devotion I could feel in this old house and as I read some of the Vyasa puja book I felt tears coming to my eyes. Will I one day be able to feel something close to what I could read in this books? Will I one day have this amount of faith and love toward you?

Last April it was the anniversary of our first meeting. This day when everything changed. I had never felt like this in my life before. This moment when I felt in my whole self that you were my way to Krsna. That you were my only chance to be delivered me from this entanglement. You had said nothing yet, you just started a kirtan and almost right away I was transported by your love to Krsna and I connected to the intense desire of serving you for the rest of my life. Never in my Krsna consciousness life I had felt like this, I was not even thinking of finding a Guru. It was an evidence as Krsna Consciousness was when I heard my first kirtan.

I was nothing before I met you and I'm only here by your mercy. You are my strength and my willingness to carry on and chant the Holy Names of the Lord. I owe you more than my life.

This past year, having you as my guide and my spiritual father was the most amazing and difficult year of my life. It felt like a lifetime. I felt so much cleansing happened by your unconditional love and mercy. Besides the association of your disciples is such a blessing and I wish to be able to serve them as best as I can.

My ultimate desire is to offer you my life and that every action I do is to serve you, to serve your mission. I want to think of you at every instant. You have all the gratitude I can have and feel in my so impure heart.

Dear Gurudev,

Please accept my most humble obeisances at your divine lotus feet. All glories to His Divine Grace Srila Prabhupada. All glories to your heart and soul Sri Gouranga Mahaprabhu.

I saw you first time in person at your dear disciple Sureshwar Prabhu's house in Bangalore. Before I met you, I used to watch your lectures and I was completely moved by them as well as your songs. When I joined ISKCON I was getting many help from devotees, however I was feeling that there is something which I am missing. I was so fortunate that I could directly approach you and the gap which I was feeling is not there anymore. In every step you've guided me, gave me direction, specially when I was very down. Through your guidance my Japa has gone to a different level now.

I realize that your grace is always available, in the form of your indescribably sweet and deep lectures.

Dear Guru Maharaj, your constant emphasis on humility, tolerance, forgiveness and many other things inspires me the most. You are divinely empowered to elevate consciousness in a remarkably less amount of time.

When I read Srila Prabhupada's books, I find your message of humility, tolerance, simplicity, and loving service in those divine books.

My connection with you is strongest through whatever little service I do to devotees. By your grace, I got more involved in Sunday programs.

Dear Gurudev, let my appreciation for you grow every single day. Let me realize your transcendental position. And let me become a sincere and serious disciple of yours.

It hasn't been a long time since I've known His Grace Mahatma Prabhu. The contact is just through emails. And I'm very grateful for his and his disciple Yamuna Mataji's divine association. I remember the first time I had messaged Yamuna Mataji, few days later she sent me a message reminding students for sending their respective Sadhna reports. And I thought it wasn't for me, I didn't deserve it.

But surprisingly the next day His Grace Mahatma Prabhu uploaded a message video on the topic "take the mercy". And I nearly thought that he indirectly was telling me to write and submit my Sadhna report, which I instantly did. But this is not the first time it happened to me that he indirectly told me to do something through his videos. One more I remember when he uploaded his message video that said about how to focus on Krsna, how Krsna loves us so much. And I really needed the message that day because I was, what we can say, spiritually depressed. I don't remember the rest, but there were many instances that happened when he was indirectly instructing me through his videos, and I know Krsna is responsible for that, or by directly contacting him through emails.

I just want to say that I'm really grateful, thank you is just a bunch of words but what I feel is even greater than that.

A very happy vyas puja to you!

It is my good fortune that I've got association of your beloved disciples and through them I've got to know you.

Srila Prabhupada told that, "First become Conscious and then become Krsna Conscious", and I think you're also trying us to teach the same thing through your seminars, how first we should become a proper human being, conscious of our own abilities, faults and circumstances so that we can properly, maturely execute the process of Bhakti.

I feel very connected with you, not only that you speak philosophy in a very sublime manner, the experiences you share that how you, yourself evolved in your practice of Krsna Consciousness gives me a great hope that if I follow Srila Prabhupada and his faithful followers then one day i'll also do something for the pleasure of Srila Prabhupada and the Guru Parampara.

Thank you for taking out time to solve so many of our doubts and personally sending voice note at times.

May SriSriRadhaMadanaMohana give you good health so that you serve Srila Prabhupada more and more.

Dearest Mahatma Das,

Hare Krishna!

Please accept my humble obeisance's.

The first time I saw you was on an evening in July 2015 when you came to give a lecture here in South Africa. I was going through a really difficult time as I had lost my nephew to suicide 2 months earlier and something told me to go to your lecture that day. In hindsight, I know now that it was Krishna's arrangement. I remember sitting through that entire lecture and being attracted to every word you said. At the end of your lecture, you gave your website address and I came to work that Monday and started listening to your lectures, and now 2 years later, I am still listening to them. The best part of my day is listening to your audio and watching your daily videos and quotes and I feel like something is missing when I don't. I want to thank you from the bottom of my heart for changing my perception and perspective of life, I want to thank you for instilling qualities in me that I thought I could never have and thank you for making me a better person. Most importantly, I want to thank you for sacrificing your time to share your knowledge of Krishna consciousness with us fallen souls. I cannot express what a tremendous help you have been in my personal and spiritual life. Hopefully, with more of your guidance and help, I will become the devotee you and Krishna wants me to be.

Please accept my heartfelt gratitude for your generous mercy in uplifting all the fallen souls like myself with so much enthusiasm. You are touching so many lives to help them advance spiritually and encouraging them by being sensitive to their needs, especially mental and emotional needs. Thank you so much for being so patient with us. I'm not even initiated and my association with devotees is bare minimal. Under such circumstances, your disciple Yamuna Devi Dasi has been a great via medium in showering your mercy on me.

Thanks a lot for being there for all grades of devotees, whether novice or advanced. By your grace, novice devotees like myself get hope and inspiration to develop our Krishna Consciousness as Srila Prabhupada desired and dedicate ourselves for the pleasure of Lord Krishna.

Thanks a lot again for showering Srila Prabhupada and Lord Krishna's mercy on us so generously.

Hare Krsna dearest Guru Maharaj,

Please accept my humble obeisances to your lotus feet.

All glories to Srila Prabhupada.

All glories to your enlivening self.

On this auspicious occasion of your Vyasa puja, there are just a few things I wanted to express from the core of my heart.

Firstly I wanted to express my deep gratitude to you for wholeheartedly accepting this most fallen and wicked soul into your spiritual family and for all your kindness and patience, which I am neither worthy of and neither will I ever be able to repay. I was literally lost and alone until I had the good fortune of your personal association on three beautiful occasions at the Sri Sri Radha Radhanath temple in Durban. And just from those instances, I was able to get a glimpse of your dynamic, amazing and exalted personality. And from that point I knew deep inside shortly afterwards that you were the one that I needed to approach and submit this useless life at your lotus feet.

I am so greatly unworthy, but by your causeless mercy and gentle guidance, I am trying to walk the path of bhakti. I am like the small child that can barely crawl, but you so kindly gave me your hand to hold onto in order to make progress on this beautiful journey. I will never be able to thank you enough. I just pray to the Lord for mercy to be a good enough disciple to you.

You are the only one in this whole universe that I am able to be brutally honest to and reveal my innermost thoughts to. Nobody knows as much about me as you do. I feel a beautiful sense of belonging each time I am in your loving association. It is said that the bona-fide Spiritual Master is an ocean of mercy and sub-total of all the demigods. This was just a beautiful idea to me until I actually met you and realized how true it is. You are the perfect father, guide and master that the Lord so mercifully allowed me to have.

On the exalted occasion of your Vyasa-puja, I pray that the Lord may always give you His mercy and blessings to continue your wonderful services to humanity at large. May you continue to inspire, guide and grow many others as you are doing to me. I know that this measly offering does not do justice in reciprocating your love and causeless mercy to me, but I pray that you may accept it and give me your blessings to serve you better.

Your most useless servant,

Hari Vallabha das, Anuradha Sakhi devi dasi and little Taruni

Please accept our humble obeisances. All glories to Srila Prabhupada.

On your Vyasa Puja day, we pray to the Lord for your good health and ever increasing strength to your glorious preaching activities.

As practitioners of Krishna Consciousness we have embarked on a journey, a spiritual journey, to our eternal home, returning to our eternal family. The journey is arduous and full of so many obstacles and temptations. As travellers on this journey we are fatigued, questioning the very need to take this journey. While trudging along we are exhausted from carrying the heavy load of our material conditioning, attachments and infatuations. This journey is so difficult and trying that many practitioners give up mid-way. Even Krishna (in the Brihad Bhagvatamrta) recognises and acknowledges the troubles and challenges that the spiritual practitioner endures to reach the spiritual world.

And, when we receive spiritual care, encouragement and causeless love from our seniors is when we actually have the strength to endure the next few steps in our journey. That love, being causeless, gives so much hope and joy. That love is Krishna's love for the jiva flowing through the Guru and Parampara.

We want to take this opportunity to thank you, from the bottom of our hearts, for all the causeless love and care that you have given to our tender spiritual lives. In your love for us, we feel the love of our spiritual master, the love of Srila Prabhupada and ultimately Krishna's love. As we trudge along the path of Krishna Consciousness we stumbled and fumbled, and yet you gave us your time, your care, your attention and your love...absolutely causelessly, to nourish us and encourage us. No matter where you were in the world, you always made time to connect with us and guide us. We never once felt that you expected anything in return, not even a thank you...you simply wanted that we be fully Krishna conscious and we go back home, back to Godhead. That level of causeless love is transformational in the lives of practitioners. Thank you for transforming our lives.

One incident we wanted to share, a few months ago when I [Anuradha Sakhi] was seeking help from His Grace he recommended I do a particular course, I was hesitant due to financial constraints. Immediately His Grace said that perhaps he can help me acquire the course should he receive further laxmi. This gesture really touched my heart as I know amidst very limited funding, with a dire need of funds for your preaching projects, you still offered to get me the help I need so selflessly as a perfect brahmana and guru as genuinely cared about my well-being Just as the fruit doesn't fall far from the tree, our interactions with your disciples has also left us in awe at their compassion and willingness to help. On sharing the above incident with one of your senior disciples she immediately said, please let me know what is cost of the course, I will try to help. I was amazed at her generosity and willingness to help a stranger in order to fulfill her Guru s wishes. On other occasions one of your younger disciples has amazed us at her love for you and your mission, and assisted us personally in keeping us inspired with so many loving, kind and encouraging words. These experiences reveal the impact you have on changing not only your disciples; lives but anyone who even meets them. We see that the seeds that you are planting are blooming so beautifully in the form of your disciples wanting to help others genuinely as you have helped them with so much love and personal involvement.

Thank you again for the love you have given to our little powerball Taruni when she met you. You truly knew how to soothe a mother's heart and named her Om Shanti dasi :), giving us great hope that the future will be calm for her with your blessings :D

This year we pray to have your darshan in the US/ Canada, and spend more time learning from you and servng you.

Hare Krishna! With much gratitude we remain your eternal servants,

Please Accept My Respectful Obeisances
All glories to Sri Guru and Gauranga
All glories to Srila Prabhupada*

I pray to their lordships , Srila Prabhupada and Maharaj to forgive me if my offering is with mistakes or not properly done.

Although i am not qualified , for my purification and to follow the prescribed duty i am making a small attempt of glorification as vyasapuja offering to HG Mahatma Pr. Though I had very less personal interactions with maharaj and exposure to his grace's services what i have learnt and observed is amazing.

Maharaj very nicely explains the teachings of Srila Prabhupada and principles of Bhakti Yoga in a very appealing way and more easier way to understand the actual essence of what Srila Prabhupad meant like " the intent of the law" rather than "the Letter of the Law" which is very very essential for the newer generation of neophyte devotees like who are hovering just on mental platforms and many times get carried over by the externals without trying to understand the essence and ending up in problems.

The compassionate nature of maharaj is very very hope giving as seen by his personal example in serving many devotees around the world trying to help them help themselves to practice krishna consciousness better and i will try my best efforts to be graateful to maharaj for his kind help received in my life.

Also Maharaj's dedication towards the mission of ISKCON and service to his beloved Spiritual Master Srila Prabhupada continuously for so may years is very much inspiring.

And I will hope and pray to lord that so many devotees who are struggling in their krishna consciousness will get the help and mercy of his grace and their lordships bestow their mercy on His Grace so that for many more years coming forward his services continue and many devotees get benefited.

Prayag

Dear Mahatma Prabhu,

Please accept my most humble obeisances at your lotus feet. All glories to Srilā Prabhupāda.

It has been more than four years since I first had the fortune to meet you, attend your seminars and serve you in some small way. The first taste I would have to hear nectar from you was for a Japa retreat you held at Bhaktivedanta Manor. I remember the first few minutes of the retreat left a very deep impression upon me. You started by asking participants the question "If you arrive on time, you are..?" and your answer of "Late" remains with me very fondly today. The retreat changed my relationship with the Holy Name in a very profound way – you gave such practical knowledge which anyone could easily appreciate and apply – thank you for leaving me with such a deep first impression.

Initially, I got to hear a lot about how personal you are with all of your disciples and well-wishers. This is one of the things that really appealed to me about you. I was able to see this first hand during all the time I've been blessed with you. I consider myself fortunate to have been able to serve you so personally in London, with various small services such as driving and also for engaging my family in some service too – I am sure it will hold them in good stead eternally. However, my time in Mayapur was the most special – I really got to know you as a person and what amazing qualities you possess. Just like your spiritual master, our dear Srila Prabhupada, you have a deep desire within you to create a positive lasting change in this world – one that will help souls not just in their temporary designations but for their eternal life. I hope I can also imbibe this mood and mission within me.

I am really touched by the time and effort you make for not just your disciples and well wishers but to all those you feel will benefit from your guidance. When I reflect the time that I had with you in Sri Dhama Mayapur, I am still perplexed by my fortune, which I can only attribute as your mercy. To have been able to come on morning walks with you, work on improving to chant the Holy Name during your Japa retreats and do the simple services such as bringing a sitting mat for the enthusiastic Vaisnavas who attended your weekly classes, I still cannot fathom how rare of an opportunity this was to take association of Krsna's pure devotee. Most of all, I really appreciated hearing from you on a regular basis. Your classes were both practical and enlightening. You speak the truth which comes from scripture but also extend with your realisation which penetrates the heart and bypasses one's false ego. I have really come to admire your style of delivering the truth in a digestible manner which appeals to so many people.

How dear you must be to Sri Krsna for all of your faithful service to Srila Prabhupada. I find that you are always absorbed in service to your spiritual master, constantly setting such a wonderful example for all your disciples to follow. I also really look up to you for your mood, which is filled with genuine compassion and love. You always endeavour to facilitate Lord Caitanya's mercy in new and innovative ways, the most recent being your immeasurable work on Soul Tools. It is my sincere desire that I may be able to assist you, in some small way, in your service to Srila Prabhupada. Please allow me to stay on this path of bhakti always and please allow me to stay close to your lotus feet.

I can never actually express to you how much I appreciate you and all that you have given me, especially as I feel so unqualified. I can only try to serve you, and I sincerely pray that one day I will have no desire other than your service and the service to the Vaisnavas.

Thank you for engaging me in the various technical services, thank you for being there to listen and always willing to help and most of all, thank you for leading by example in how to look after your family whilst always putting Krsna Consciousness in the centre of your lives. I pray that I can always follow in your footsteps.

Your servant, Prayag

Nikhil

Dear Mahatma Prabhu,

Please accept my most humble obeisances. All glories to the lotus feet Srila Prabhupda.

I was just reflecting how I had come in contact with yourself. After being faced with one of the most difficult phases of my life, I came in touch with one of your articles on Dandavats on which you had written your email address at the bottom. So from this I thought that I should maybe write and ask for your advice. After sending my first mail back in January, I found myself writing to you again and again with my issues. The way you expressed your genuine concern and willingness to help is an inspiration for all devotees around the world. Despite being so busy, you still went out of your way to help me in my situation.

In the Bhagavad Gita (7.16), Krishna says:

*catur-vidhā bhajante mām
janāḥ sukṛtino 'rjuna
ārto jijñāsur arthārthī
jñānī ca bharatarṣabh*

O best among the Bhāratas, four kinds of pious men begin to render devotional service unto Me – the distressed, the desirer of wealth, the inquisitive, and he who is searching for knowledge of the Absolute.

It's through yours and Krishna's mercy that through the times of distress, I was able to connect to you. And it is through this connection that I feel more in touch with my Krishna consciousness than before. Without your help and guidance, I feel as though I would be stuck in the same situation, or maybe in an even worse situation, than what I was in back in January. It's not just the emails that have helped me, but all the articles on your website have been so helpful in all aspects of my life.

In such a short period of time, I feel as though you have helped me so much and showered me with so much undeserving mercy. Helping me get through the tough times, helping me get closer to Krishna, helping me take care of my personal sadhana through the sadhana reports, and so many more ways in which you have blessed me. I just pray that some day I can serve you and repay everything that you have done for me in the past five/six months or so.

Your most unworthy and fallen servant,

Nikhil

Hare Krsna dear Guru Maharaja,

Please accept my most humble obeiscances, All Gories to your Exhalted self, Jaya Prabhupada! He built a house in which the whole world can live!

As I sit here, I find myself once more unable to succinctly articulate myself, as I have been for the last couple of weeks spent trying to write this offering. Nonetheless, I will try my very best.

I seem to have this strange ability or phenomenon that occurs when I meet people for the first time, especially in unfamiliar surroundings. What happens is that I do not see that person's face clearly until I get to know them.

With you however, it was the total opposite. In fact, I remember how clearly and distinctly your face stood out for me as you were sitting on the Vyas-asana in Cape Town last year. That was the first time I'd ever seen you, and the first time I set foot in a temple. Even then, without knowing much about the movement or even about spiritual masters, I felt as though you were speaking just to me at that very moment. That is something I can never forget.

As miserable as I am at writing, I feel that I cannot just offer you something as simple as the word "thanks". I wouldn't be doing much justice to you (or to my feelings, in fact) if I did so.

Instead, I would like you to know just how much I see how you have changed my life, Maharaja. It might sound dramatic that I say that, but it is nothing but the truth. That is simply what you have done.

I was in an incredibly dark space when Krsna brought you into my life. Now, 6 months later, I still struggle, but knowing that I have you there gives me so much strength, I thank you for bringing the best out of me and for cleaning out this heart of mine that I can learn how easy and beautiful the process of forgiveness can be. I have not known so much freedom and relief in a long time.

I thank you for unfailingly giving us Prabhupada, and for showing us the way to his lotus feet, right through the parampara and one day, back to Godhead. I pray that I may imbibe just a tiny fraction of your love, sincerity in devotional service that you may go back into the loving embrace of Sri Sri Radha Krishna as soon as possible.

I cannot quite fathom how much you have done for this, Lord Caitanya's sankirtan mission. For my siblings. For me.

I will never understand the amount of mercy that Krishna has bestowed upon me that I may be able to claim to be your aspiring disciple. I am so incredibly unqualified for that honor, and still have the heart of an absolute rascal. I do not deserve even a speck of your kindness, patience and mercy but promise that I will always work towards being someone who can wear that title deservingly.

*One day, I hope.
Gurudev!*

*kripa-bindu diya, koro' ei dase, trinapekha ati hina
sakala sahane, bala diya koro',

*Sakale sammana korite sakati,

Kabe heno kripa, labhiya e jana, sakti-buddhi-hina, ami ati dina, koro' more atma-satha

*Jogyata-vicare, kichu nahi pai,

Gurudeva, give to this servant just one drop of mercy. I am lower than a blade of grass. Give me all help. Give me strength. Let me be as you are, without desires or aspirations.

I offer you all respects, for thus I may have the energy to know you correctly. Then, by chanting the holy name in great ecstasy, all my offenses will cease.

O Lord and Master! When will such mercy fall to this one who is weak and devoid of intelligence? Allow me to be with you.

If you examine me, you will find no qualities. Your mercy is all that I am made of. If you are not merciful unto me, I can only weep, and I will not be able to maintain my life.

Srila Bhaktivinod Thakur Maharaja puts it better than I could ever attempt to.

*Hoping to make you proud one day.

Happy Vyasa Puja day!

I wish you strong health and long years of life on your teaching and preaching the science of Krishna consciousness in the movement of Lord Chaitanya.

I feel myself very unqualified and short of words to describe the Your glories and transcendental qualities, moreover I feel myself unable to adequately express my gratitude and indebtedness for everything you have given me and still giving now.

You have given me shelter and support a times when I didn't feel earth under my feet.

You have given me hope and faith when I felt myself as an atheist.

You have given me strength and courage when I felt myself a loser and was unable to fight.

You have inspired me when I was desperate.

You have nourished my Bhakti-sukriti when it almost suffocated due to my own impurities.

You have taken me step by step when I couldn't make a move forward.

You have reconnected me with myself when I was lost in void.

You have brought me to sunshine when I buried myself up alive.

You have taught me how to break free from resentment which was eating me up inside.

You have shared with me the precious touchstones of your own realizations and encouraged to always look after and pray for my own.

You have granted awareness of so many things and same time gifted the tools how to deal with the actual complexities of life.

Your love and dedication to Srila Prabhupada have brought me closer to Prabhupada.

You have given me mercy and blessings that I never deserved.

You have explored the depths of the chanting of the Holy Names and thus made me develop deeper relationship with Nama, with Krishna, with Sri Sri Radhe Shyam.

You have mercifully blessed me with a deeper relationship and with my own Guru Maharaja.

Thank You for being my shiksha guru, dear Mahatma Prabhu. I will never be able to repay you for everything, but I pray I could please You by applying Your instructions and thus serve You in those insignificant ways that I can.

On behalf of our entire family, Happy Vyasa Puja Day!!!

Dear Mahatma Prabhu,

Please accept my humble obeisances. All glories to Srila Prabhupada.

I came to know that today is your Vyasa Puja celebration in Poland. I would like to take this opportunity to express my gratitude towards the siksa I have been receiving from you.

I regularly read articles in dandavats.com and some years back I was attracted by your articles on japa. One of your articles regarding "courtesy japa" still remains important to me. As a conditioned soul i have no taste on the holy name, but your writing serves as a powerful reminder how I should build up a correct attitude and gradually develop taste to the holy name.

I was also deeply impressed by your views on relationship. They are practical, open minded and at the same time adhere to the Vedic principles. Recently I am experiencing relationship crisis and I am ashamed that I couldn't put what I have learned before into practice and became a good wife. But whenever my devotee friends are in doubt about female roles/relationships, I always recommend them to read your writings.

Recently I wrote to you about my relationship crisis. From the bottom of my heart I am grateful that amidst your busy schedule you take time to reply to me promptly and give me practical and to-the-point advices. I am fortunate to be able to take shelter and receive siksa from your grace, and for this I will always be grateful.

And what to speak about all the Goldie oldie music and tunes which many devotees including me still relish and chant. Thank you very much!

On this auspicious day of your Vyasa puja, I pray to the Lord that your grace would continue your wonderful preaching in impeccable health. You are truly a paramahansa and i am fortunate to have your association. I also pray that I will be able to receive your siksa in the years to come, and if somehow Krishna gives the opportunity, I would be able to render you some service.

Hare Krishna!

I have no ability to wish you on your Birthday but Thank you for being born. Thank you for being You

This time when you left from Sydney Airport, me and Amrita Radhika were watching you walk through the security gates and vainsh. We were left feeling so sad and that lead us to think that how difficult it is for disciples to see you leave from where ever you go . Which then further lead us to think how difficult it would be for you too. Yet you remain cheerful on your way to saving other souls.

Just like when Chaitanya Maha Prabhu went preaching he would meet people ...teach them the Harinaam and they would follow them mesmerized where ever he went. After some time he would send them back home having given them the seeds of Bhakti . Then he would move on to different places saving more souls. You are just like him ...saving all of us on your way back home _^_

And if we again still start to wander away from the Path...you are back to save us again By your example you have been teaching us all the way along. You have taught me to love Srila Prabhupada...because of you I feel so connected to him. Through his and Your lectures and all his memories spread across the world I never feel that I never have met him.

Thank you for giving me this connection _^_

Your attachment to Prabhupada is so strong and so evident that it catches on to any one in your association. You spread Prabhupada ;s love where ever you go.

I am still taken aback by what you said the night before leaving Sydney, when all of us were sitting in your room in the Sydney temple - You were describing how you would stand a bit back from Prabhupada and not ask many questions when he would visitthinking You would be wasting his precious time .

It still blows me away. I really felt that it would have been so nice if ALL the disciples would have been there to hear you speak that day. They would all have been blown away by what you said.

Thank you for teaching me by your example that what ever may happen in my life I am still OK if Krsna and You are with me. That is all that matters. Rest just follows.

Thank you for teaching us the difference between Part of life and Life Itself_/_

I am pretty sure you don't need a nonsensical fool like me as a disciple but you still put up with me for my benefit.

Guru Maharaj the day I asked for your blessings for some thing material is a stark reminder in my mind as one of my biggest mistakes in life. Yet you still sent your blessing . Please forgive me _/_

I can;t help but feel like an absolute fool writing this letter . I am no one to be able to wish you.

I'm too small and insignificant to appreciate your magnificent self and I cant even fathom the right words EVER but I'm unlimitedly grateful to you for accepting me as your disciple and catching me in your safety net.

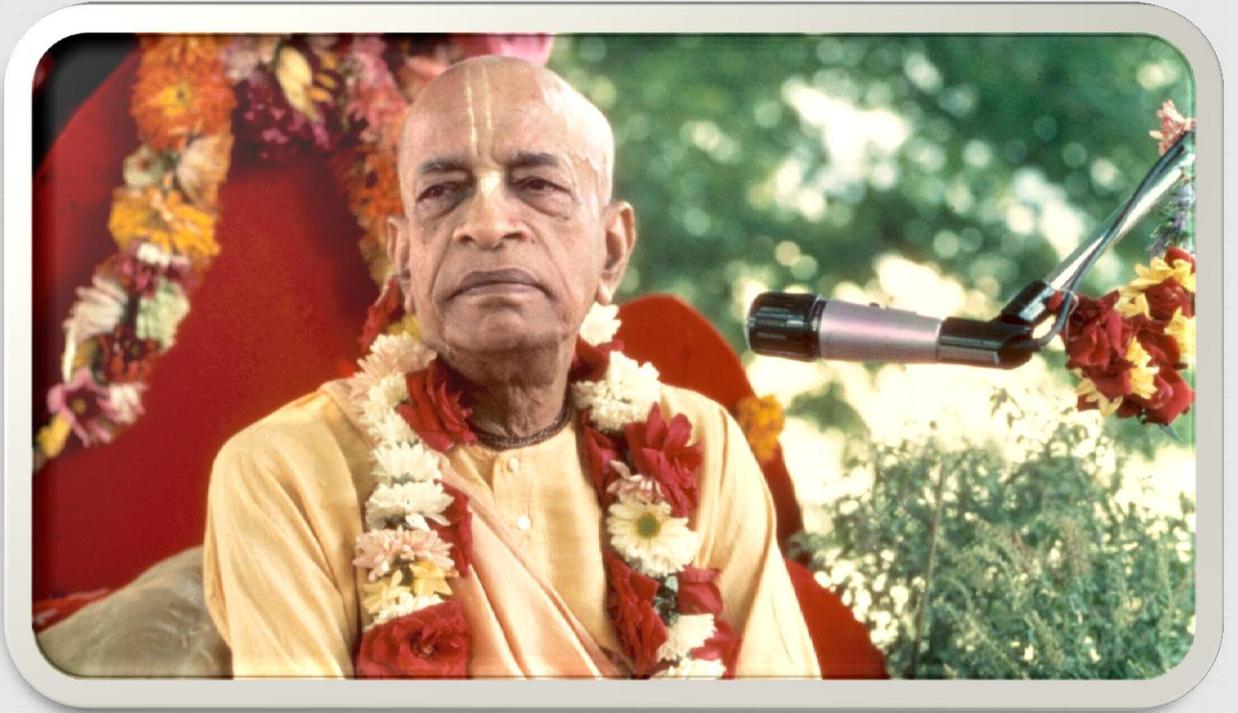

Please let me remain your fool _/_
